

AUTHENTICITY 2021

INTERNATIONAL ONLINE
COACHING CONFERENCE
MAURITIUS

9 DECEMBER 2021

About the Conference

"Authenticity" –

International Online Coaching Conference

is being held for the very first time for Mauritius bringing together great speakers, great coaching content, great facilitators – from both academia and practice. This conference aims to inform and engage interactively with the audience to build coaching skills and develop coaching practice.

Coaching practice is becoming an ever-stronger mechanism to support organisational leadership and many organisations are striving to embed coaching practice in their organisation culture. Keynote addresses on relevant coaching topics will give participants plenty of opportunities to acquire new knowledge, skills, insights and capacity.

Participants will get the opportunity to engage with experienced coaches and put into practice coaching techniques and learnings through online coaching sessions.

Why should you attend

If you (Coach, Coaching professional, Leadership Professional, HR Manager, Learning & Development Manager) are looking at broadening your coaching perspective then you must attend this conference.

This conference is for all those who are interested to learn and exchange about the practice of coaching and its future, scientific developments around coaching, about the coach/client relationship and much more.

Leave with a sense of direction and purpose, and a broadened network of coaching connections.

Meet Your Speakers

Professor Salomé van Coller-Peter

is a senior lecturer and researcher in Management Coaching at the University of Stellenbosch Business School (USB).

She is a registered industrial psychologist and professional coach and her private-practice focuses on alignment within team-contexts. Her research-focus covers areas such as Reflective-Learning-Practice, Transformational Learning, Project Leader as Coach, Sustainable learning through coaching at business-schools and leadership teams.

Bhavna Toor

is the founder of Shenomics, a Mindful leadership platform helping women realize their highest professional aspirations. After a celebrated career on Wall Street, New York, Bhavna was the CEO and Director of the National Social Entrepreneurship Forum. She has worked with high-potential women at leading companies like Société Générale, Google, Target and Goldman Sachs. Bhavna is also TEDx speaker, a former Miss India New York, model, actress, dancer and TV Host (Namaste America).

Nobantu Mpotulo

is amongst the first five Africans to be accredited at MCC by the International Coach Federation (ICF). She is one of the inaugural international coaches for Ethical Coach. For the past three years Nobantu has been doing live coaching demonstrations on UBUNTU coaching at WBECS and on other global platforms. Nobantu has developed an Ubuntu Coaching Programme for Coaches which has been gaining traction globally.

Valeccia Challe

is a behavioural coach, working with humans, animals and businesses. She particularly uses the equi-coaching method, where the horse is the mediator, to help everyone have a better knowledge of oneself, and to accept one's qualities as well as flaws in order to live better.

Dr. Anuradha Rao

has held several leadership positions in the corporate world with organizations like GE, IBM and Deutsche Bank. Anuradha has been an Executive Coach since 2009 and has over 900 hours of Coaching to her credit. Her clients include leadership from several organizations ~ Deutsche Bank, Reliance India, AMEX, Dr Reddy's Lab, MasterCard amongst others.

She specializes in Leadership Development and Performance Coaching.

Dr. Dumi Magadlela

is an accredited international executive coach, team coach, coach trainer, leadership development facilitator, organizational 'people whisperer', and African skills development practitioner.

He is an author on executive coaching, coaching approaches, ubuntu values, and people development.

Dumi co-founded the Ubuntu Coaching Foundation (UCF) at The Coaching Centre (TCC) in South Africa.
